JAMES BECKETT /
STRANGE GLOW

Van Zijll Langhout is proud to present 'Strange Glow', a solo exhibition by James Beckett, during the Amsterdam Art Week 2024. 'Strange Glow' is primarily an exercise in compacting disparate sources – a play on the associative and nonsensical. As assemblage, these pieces feature backdrops of architectural reproduction, superimposed with seemingly random objects and extracts from the news.

The exhibition is an extension of Beckett's 'Strange Glow' series. James Beckett (ZA/NL) 1977, Harare Zimbabwe, is a Rijksakademie alum and winner of the Prix de Rome for Art in Public Space. His works are in the public collections of the Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam, Centraal Museum Utrecht, and Centre Pompidou, Paris, amongst others. He currently lives and works between New York City and Amsterdam.
